

PRE-APPLICATION MEETINGS

WHAT IS A PRE-APPLICATION MEETING?

Pre-application meetings are intended to provide applicants with the opportunity to present development proposals, discuss applicable codes, ask questions, and determine the requirements for a complete application prior to the actual permit intake process.

A pre-application meeting also allows Planning and Development Services (PDS) staff to become familiar with project elements prior to a complete, in-depth review. There are different types of meetings offered: coaching, scoping, and land use. Meeting details are listed on the next page.

WHO SHOULD REQUEST THE MEETING?

Residential homeowners, contractors, or other representatives may be advised to schedule a coaching meeting if the project is determined to be complex by City staff or involves additional land use research. Most residential project assistance for single-family, duplex, and townhomes of 1-2 units can be provided at the Permit Counter without an appointment.

For commercial projects, the meeting is requested by the applicant. The applicant is often a design professional or may be a property owner or developer in beginning stages of feasibility who often designates a design professional when the project moves forward. The applicant is responsible for inviting the rest of the design team to the meeting and acts as the project manager.

BEFORE YOU REQUEST A MEETING

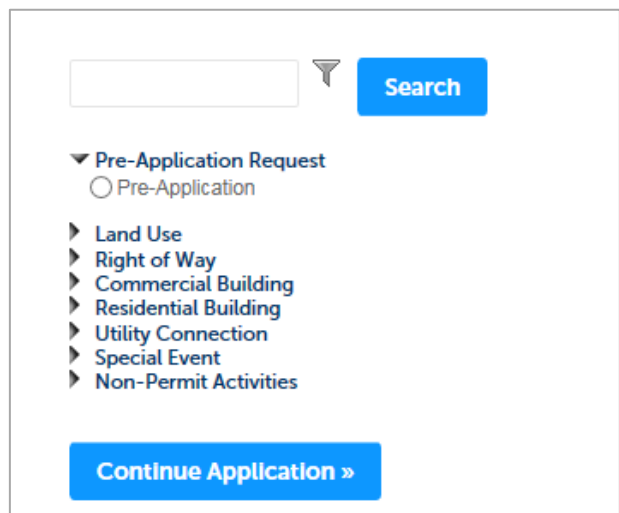

- Prepare “what to submit” on the next page.
